How can you join the dialogue ?

Turkey's Accession process to the EU is not only influenced by what Governments and businesses do, but also by the civil society in both Turkey and across the EU. This means that all kinds of civil society organisations can contribute to the process and can make their contributions in many different ways.

If you're a member of an organisation looking to take part, or perhaps just an interested citizen, and need to have some guidance on what to do next, we hope that the ideas and links below will be of help. This is NOT an exhaustive list of the opportunities, but rather just a starting point.

- Learn more about the EU, the Member States, its institutions, and the benefits of Accession, and share your learning with colleagues and friends,
